Scottish Natural Heritage Email of 22 May 2013

Dear Mr Stewart

Further to my letter of 10 May, in which I indicated that we would publish maps SNH has provided to Government, these can now be viewed on our website at <http://www.snh.gov.uk/protecting-scotlands-nature/looking-after-landscapes/landscape-policy-and-guidance/wild-land/mapping/>. A link to an explanatory table and 14 maps can be found towards the end of the section describing Phase II and III - how have we identified areas of wild land character?

I hope the Committee find this information useful, and I will be happy to clarify anything that is not clear.
