CONSIDERATION OF PETITION PE1565 (Whole of life sentences for violent re-offenders)

Thank you for your letter of 10 June in relation to the above.

I can confirm that the issue of whole life sentences and the length of time that life prisoners must spend in prison is an issue that the independent Scottish Sentencing Council could consider once it is established later this year. It is the case that what work the Council undertake will be a matter for them to determine once the Council is established later this year.

As requested, I include information on life sentences in Scotland in a spreadsheet accompanying this letter. I can also advise that the UK Government have indicated that as at 31 March 2015, 52 people were in custody in England and Wales serving whole life sentences.

I hope this is helpful.

Criminal Law and Sentencing Unit

Punishment Part Years	Punishment Part Months	Punishment Part Days	Lifer Punishment Part Expiry Date	Prisoner Date Of Birth	Age at Punishment Part Expiry Date	Current Prisoner Age
--------------------------	---------------------------	-------------------------	--------------------------------------	------------------------	---	-------------------------

Information in the spreadsheet includes cases where an offender has received more than one life sentence and/or other fixed sentences which can mean the date of earliest possible release (i.e. expiry of the punishment part) is calculated from the effect of more than one sentence potentially having been imposed at different times. Care should be taken therefore in analysing the information in terms of a prisoner's age when receiving a punishment part as if sentences have been imposed at different times, this results in overall punishment parts being adjusted at different ages of the prisoner. The way data is recorded means that we are unable to provide a breakdown of life sentences where only one sentence and one punishment part have been received. Life sentences includes prisoners who received an Order for Lifelong Restriction.
