

PE1463/O

Petitioner Email of 18 June 2013

Dear Andrew,

Would you please pass this information on the medication Liothyronine (T3) tablet prices, to the petitions committee as we think they are relevant for their meeting with Alex Neil on 25th June?

Kind regards,

Sandra Whyte

NICE—

Liothyronine price 28-tab 20mcg pack = £26.15

<https://www.evidence.nhs.uk/formulary/bnf/current/6-endocrine-system/62-thyroidand-antithyroid-drugs/621-thyroid-hormones/liothyronine-sodium/liothyronine-sodium>

PSNC (Pharmaceutical Services Negotiating Committee)—

Liothyronine 20mcg price 28-tab = £52.46

http://www.psnc.org.uk/data/files/Broken\_Bulk\_Cat\_A\_M\_over\_50/Cat\_A\_and\_M\_List\_for\_BB\_May\_2013.pdf

Cynomel 25mcg 300x tab = £38.83 (can have very slight price variation)

<http://mymexicanrugstore.org/3-x-cytomel>

Sandra Whyte: "I use this company as I find their T3 tablets to have a better reaction, and therefore keep me in better health than the (Mercury) liothyronine prescription tablets I get from my doctor".

[Petitioner provided scanned image of receipt – not attached]

Receipt for T3 - Tiromel 100-tab 25mcg = £1.21

Receipt says 3.51 Turkish Lira = £1.21 GB pound