

PE1809/A

Scottish Government submission of 1 July 2020

Following discussion with the representatives of the dental profession, the British Dental Association about the discontinuation of the Continuing Professional Development Allowance (CPDA) it was agreed by Scottish Government not to proceed with the withdrawal.

Therefore the CPDA remains unchanged and in place as part of the Statement of Dental Remuneration.